- 20.7 The Contractor accepts no responsibility for any use which may be made of any Product or result of the Services carried out under or pursuant to this Agreement, nor for any reliance which may be placed on such work or results, nor for advice or information given in connection with them.
- 20.8 Each Party undertakes to make no claim in connection with this Agreement or its subject matter against any employees, students, agents or appointees of the other Party (apart from claims based on fraud or wilful misconduct). - 22.2 Either Party may terminate this Agreement after a defined deliverable has been achieved upon at least ninety (90) days prior written notice to the other Party, if the project is not viable, or cost effective, due to the complexity of the requirement. In exercising its rights under this clause 22.2, the Authority shall act in a reasonable and proportionate manner and give due consideration, where appropriate, to action other than termination of the Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Authority terminates this Agreement under this clause 22.2 it will pay the Contractor for all agreed work completed prior to termination.
- 22.3 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy (of whatever nature) available to the Authority, each and any of the following events shall constitute a Default Event, entitling the Authority, (at its sole discretion) to terminate the Agreement: -

- 23.2 If the Default Event is rectified to the Authority's reasonable satisfaction within the ninety-day period then termination shall not take effect. If the Default Event is of a nature such that it can be remedied but not within a ninety day period, then termination shall also not be effective if the party involved begins to remedy the breach within that period, and then continues diligently to remedy the breach until it is remedied fully. If the Default Event is incapable of remedy, (for whatever reason), then termination shall take effect, at the end of the ninety-day period in any event.
- 24 NOT USED
